

SECRETARIAT EXPANDS MIDDLE EAST CONSTRUCTION PRACTICE WITH ADDITION OF MANAGING DIRECTORS CONRAD BROMLEY AND MANUS BRADLEY

DUBAI, 1 September 2020 – Today Secretariat welcomed seasoned construction quantum expert Conrad Bromley and construction delay expert Manus Bradley to the firm’s Dubai office. Both Managing Directors, Bromley and Bradley significantly expand the the firm’s construction capabilities to serve the Middle East region, including the addition of damages expertise for the first time.

“Growing in the Middle East has been a strategic focus for us for a while. But we have always focused on making sure we grow thoughtfully and with the right talent. Landing Conrad and Manus hits the mark on all fronts,” says Secretariat Managing Director Don Harvey. “We can say with pride and confidence that our construction team is second-to-none in experience and capabilities across the entire region.”

Bromley, a testifying quantum expert and 13-year veteran of the Middle East market, joins the firm as a Managing Director. He brings more than 20 years’ experience in large-scale international construction and engineering projects across a variety of sectors, ranging from rail and mass transport to pipelines, power stations and marine wharfs. Bromley has been instructed more than a dozen times as an independent quantum expert on projects up to US$5bn in value, and disputes in excess of US$350m. He has testified on multiple occasions, giving oral testimony in traditional cross-examination as well as concurrent evidence/hot-tubbing in Arbitration, DAB, and DRB proceedings. As an independent quantum expert and advisor with experience across the MENA region, he specializes in matters of quantity surveying, including the valuation of damages, disruption and loss of productivity, variations, defects, and claims for acceleration and mitigation. Who’s Who Legal recognizes Bromley as a Future Leader, describing him as “... a knowledgeable adviser and seasoned expert witness in complex disputes...” who “... displays remarkable talent in acting as testifying expert in complex construction quantum and delay disputes.” Most recently, Bromley was a Director in HKA’s Dubai office.

Bradley, also joining as a Managing Director, is a testifying delay expert who has over 20 years’ experience in large scale construction and engineering projects as project engineer, project scheduler and delay analyst. He advises on planning and programming issues and acts as an expert advisor and independent expert witness in matters concerning project delay, disruption and acceleration. He is regularly instructed as an independent delay expert witness and has given written and oral evidence in numerous domestic and international arbitration settings, including cross examination by Queen’s Counsel and concurrent cross-examination (hot-tubbing). Identified as a Future Leader by Who’s Who Legal, Bradley is described as “excellent” and as a “detail-oriented and articulate” expert in delay matters. He was a Director with HKA before joining Secretariat.
